Senator Foraker's father is dead at the ripe old age of 83 years.

One of the six immune regiments to be mustered in, will be raised in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Col. Oppenheimer, of Texas, has reported for duty at Mobile and is ready to wade in Spanish gore.

The Democratic Congressional Convention in the Seventh district has been called to meet at Frankfort June 15. Evan E. Settle is the only candidate.

Senator Burrows is evidently rattled over something. He advises the President to send 1,000,000 men to Manila.

Editor Green R. Kellar, of the Carlisle Mercury, has changed his paper to a semi-weekly to get the war news to his readers in a little fresher form.

Chairman P. P. Johnson has called a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee at Louisville, May 31, to consider Louisville appointments.

Mr. Bryan refused to allow himself to be elected captain of the company he mustered in at Lincoln, because another man wanted the place and would not make Mr. Bryan's election unanimous.

The much talked of "Naval Strategy Boone," is composed of Admiral Sicard, Capt. Mahan and Capt. Crowninshield. If you feel like cursing, these are the men to cuss.

The report that Chas. W. Metcalf, of Pineville, may decide not to run for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, is not taken seriously by his friends. He has had the nomination already won ever since the last State Convention.

A Barcelona dispatch says the sending of a Spanish expedition to the Philippines to try to reclaim them has been postponed indefinitely. Spain will probably take her chances on getting them back in the treaty of peace.

The Chicago Record suggests that we ought to be patient with Sampson in view of the fact that it took Lord Nelson three months to find the French fleet in the Mediterranean, a much smaller sheet of water than the Caribbean sea.

The friendship of France for Spain is likely to play smash with the Paris Exposition, so far as the United States is concerned. There is already serious talk of refusing to make an appropriation for an American exhibit.

Walter Evans is said to be in danger of defeat by Todd, for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Louisville district. The A. P. A. organization will be solidly for Todd. The Democrats could ask for nothing better than another chance at Todd.

Emile Zola, the novelist, has been put on trial at Paris a second time for criminal libel contained in charges which he brought against the officers who conducted the Esterhazy court martial. The first trial resulted in a conviction, but was set aside by the court and a new trial granted.

The South bound Santa Fe train was derailed by a party of bandits thirty miles south of Albuquerque Thursday night. The express company's safe was thrown out and blown open by dynamite and the contents taken. The robbers escaped on horseback. The amount secured by the bandits is unknown, but it is large it is understood.

The Paducah News very aptly says: The "son" business is muchly overdone. The sons of Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Lincoln, Harrison, Logan, Pickett and other soldiers and statesmen are about breaking their necks to get military office. They all want high offices, too—nothing short of a colonel fills their idea.

The third regiment of the Kentucky volunteers may move to the front sooner than they anticipate. It is reported from Lexington that arrangements have been completed with the C. & O. railroad to have trains in readiness on Saturday to convey a regiment east and that the third would be the one to go to the coast defense. With the second about to be moved to Chickamauga, this would break up one of the Lexington camps and leave Col. Castleman and his Legion boys by themselves.

The July Ladies' Home Journal will be known as "The President's Number." It will contain an illustrated anecdotal biography of President McKinley, and a new march, "The President's March," also dedicated to the Chief Executive. The march is by Victor Herbert, who wrote it expressly for the Journal to supercede "Hail to the Chief." It is pronounced in every way worthy to serve as a patriotic greeting upon occasions of the public appearances of the President.

About ten days ago the afternoon papers "scooped" the morning papers with the exclusive report that Admiral Montejó, who lost the battle of Manila, had been assassinated. A late report from Manila says Montejó is still alive and will be tried by court martial for cowardice. It is further said that the Captain of the Calloa, recently captured by Dewey's fleet, will be shot for not returning the fire of the American vessels.

The Navy Department has refused to grant the request of the German Government to permit Gustavo Bock, a wealthy cigar maker, to pass the Cuban blockade and enter Havana. Bock is said to be a colonel of Spanish volunteers and is regarded as a suspicious character. From the name he bears, Mr. Bock probably wanted to go in on a schooner.

A number of the Kentucky members of the state militia who were rejected by the examining surgeons for slight defects are endeavoring through the senators and representatives to be accepted by the war department. Some of them in their anxiety to go state that they will waive all claims for pensions.

OMAHA'S EXPOSITION.

Gen. T. S. Clarkson Is Appointed General Manager—Ready for June 1.

Omaha, Neb., May 25.—Gen. T. S. Clarkson, of this city, past grand master of the Grand Army of Republic, has been appointed general manager of the Trans-Mississippi exposition. The business before the board of managers has increased so rapidly of late that its members decided to delegate some of the work, and created the office of general manager. A large share of the exhibits are now on the grounds and the work of installation proceeds vigorously. Nearly all the government exhibits are in place. Everything will be in readiness for the opening day, June 1.

THE OREGON AT LAST.

The Para Story a Ruse and She Is Now in a Florida Port.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—The Oregon has at last arrived at Jupiter, Fla., 40 miles above Palm Beach, on the Atlantic side, 63 days from San Francisco.

The battleship has accomplished the longest and fastest voyage ever made by a first-class battleship. She is a coast defense vessel, carrying the heaviest guns and the thickest armor.

She was built to fight, not to travel swiftly. She is a floating fort of tremendous defensive and offensive power.

Yet she has just steamed 15,000 miles, or more than half way round the world, at an average speed, going night and day, of 11 knots an hour.

She coaled only four times in this remarkable journey. Leaving Callao, Peru, she rounded Cape Horn to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, without renewing her coal supply.

The Oregon was built in San Francisco, launched October 26, 1893, and was never in the Atlantic before.

On her trial trip, May, 1896, the Oregon made 17.3 knots an hour, which was the best record of any warship of her class in the world.

Spain has no single vessel as powerful as the Oregon. Her four main guns weigh 272 tons net, firing at a single discharge steel projectiles weighing more than two tons.

When Capt. Clark, with the battleship, arrived at Rio Janeiro he received long instructions from the Naval Board of Strategy telling him of the danger that he might be intercepted by the Spanish fleet and how to avoid meeting them.

Clark wired in reply: "Please don't tangle me with instructions. I am not afraid of the whole Spanish fleet."

The Hopkinsville boys who staid at Lexington are no longer members of company D. The company letters have been changed and Gaines' company is company E, and Hartford company is now Co. D.

Col. Thos. H. Sherley, the Louisville distiller, has completed a device for filling whisky bottles, that will fill 80 at a time. The bottles after being filled can be emptied in any old way.

Now that Cervera is "bottled up" in Santiago harbor, why delay in putting the stopper in?

Attention K. of P's.

To-night (26th) at Castle Hall is the regular meeting of Evergreen lodge No. 38. A large attendance is desired as it is the time for election of officers and representatives. Will have work in the ranks of Esquire and Knight.
